Student Evaluation of Courses and Faculty

Student evaluations of faculty and courses are used for improving courses and evaluating faculty members. They will not affect your grade in the course. The faculty member will have access to the evaluations only after submitting final grades. Listed below are a number of statements which describe this course, aspects of the professor's teaching, and your own performance. Rate each of these items by marking the most appropriate response category. Rate each item as thoughtfully and carefully as possible. Your responses will remain anonymous and confidential. Thank you for taking the time to complete this evaluation.

What useful feedback could you provide the professor of this course? (Please be specific.)

I would say to provide breaks in between because it is a 2 hour class and our attention span isn't that great.

What were the best aspects of this course? (Please be specific.)

The best aspects of this course were the group exercises and labs.

What would you change about this course? (Please be specific.)

I would change the length of this class, because sometimes we would be done but we have to stay for something irrelevant.

Please evaluate your own performance in this course. That is, are you satisfied with your accomplishments in this course? If not, what should you have done differently to improve your performance and/or comprehension of the course material?

I think I did well in this course.

Student Evaluation of Courses and Faculty

Student evaluations of faculty and courses are used for improving courses and evaluating faculty members. They will not affect your grade in the course. The faculty member will have access to the evaluations only after submitting final grades. Listed below are a number of statements which describe this course, aspects of the professor's teaching, and your own performance. Rate each of these items by marking the most appropriate response category. Rate each item as thoughtfully and carefully as possible. Your responses will remain anonymous and confidential. Thank you for taking the time to complete this evaluation.
